INTERNATIONAL NIGHT 2016

On behalf of Rockville's Mayor and Council, welcome to International Night 2016!

Rockville is a city of diversity. Our residents come from around the world. Tonight is a living, breathing example of Rockville's success as a truly cosmopolitan city, one that respects and encourages people of all cultures, creeds and colors to engage, to take part and to come together.

Among the Mayor and Council's priority initiatives is the city's commitment to reach out to its diverse community members and encourage them — you — to take part. What makes us different makes us great. Respect for each other's differences makes us strong. Your involvement makes a better Rockville.

Learn more about Rockville at www.rockvillemd.gov, follow us on Twitter (@rockville411), and like us on Facebook, www.facebook.com/cityofrockville.

Enjoy the show!

Master of Ceremonies

Tiffany Copeland, assistant professor in the radio program at Montgomery College in Rockville, is also general manager of WMCR, Montgomery College's radio station. She is currently enrolled in Howard University's doctoral program in Communication, Culture, and Media Studies, and previously worked as a producer for "The Daily Drum" and "Taking it to the Streets," at WHUR 96.3 FM. As the former associate director of general education at Brown Mackie College in Miami, she spearheaded a multitude of diversity initiatives. A true citizen of the world, Copeland has travelled around the globe to Canada, Mexico, the Caribbean, Africa and Europe.

Special recognition

During this special moment, we will pay tribute to those who have become United States citizens. We will ask you to stand so we can honor your hard work, pride and dedication to the country.
